

DONOR STORIES

IOWA STATE BANK OF ALGONA “Iowa State Bank of Algona Charitable Fund”

Established in 1928, Iowa State Bank has grown from its Algona roots with the addition of offices in Corwith, Ruthven and Wesley, Iowa. The bank has a long-standing tradition of philanthropy with cooperation from the bank's Since 1928, Iowa State Bank helps people succeed. As a community bank, Iowa State Bank takes pride in local decision making.

board members, executives, and employees. In April of 2007, the Iowa State Bank of Algona decided to join the Kossuth County Community Foundation in their philanthropic efforts by creating an endowment fund.

Iowa State Bank supports over 150 local organizations with financial contributions in excess of $100,000. Iowa State Bank is proud to support the educational, health and recreational organizations that make the community a better place to live. Schools, kids, festivals, libraries, pools, parks, clubs, fairs, fire departments and others benefit from the generosity of Iowa State Bank.

Since 1928, Iowa State Bank helps people succeed. As a community bank, Iowa State Bank takes pride in local decision making.

With locations in Algona, Corwith, Ruthven and Wesley, Iowa State Bank employs over 50 people to serve the financial needs of Kossuth, Hancock and Palo Alto counties. In addition to traditional banking services, Iowa State Bank is the only bank in Kossuth County to have a trust department to help customers secure their financial future.

The Kossuth County Community Foundation is proud to partner with the Iowa State Bank of Algona. Their Fund is an unrestricted fund established to benefit the citizens of Kossuth County and will certainly make an impact for years to come.

*Historical vignette prepared by the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa.

Algona • Corwith • Ruthven • Wesley