About Aplington Legion Memorial Library

Aplington Legion Memorial Library is located in Aplington, Iowa, and serves the city of Aplington and the surrounding rural area. The mission of the Aplington Legion Memorial Library is to provide free and open access so that pleasure, information, and wisdom contained therein can be shared and expanded for all people of the community.

Libraries Are For Everyone

The library provides a wide range of services and programming tailored for ages 0 to 100. There are always library programs and activities going on within our building and throughout the city.

Your Gift Keeps on Giving

Your gift to the Christian and Ruth Fisher Aplington Library Memorial Fund will support and enrich the resources, programs, services, and facilities of the Aplington Legion Memorial Library. Together, we will continue to make our community a more connected and vibrant place to live. For a full list of programs and services and to learn more about the library, visit their website at aplington.lib.ia.us.

Added Tax Benefits of Giving

The Christian and Ruth Fisher Aplington Library Memorial Fund is eligible for the Endow Iowa 25% state tax credit. Gifts to permanent endowment funds of the Community Foundation that benefit Iowa charitable causes, are eligible to receive a 25% state tax credit through the Endow Iowa program. Your gift will also be eligible for federal deductions for charitable giving. Go to cfneia.org/endowiowa for more information.
