

Alcock Cemetery Association Endowment Fund

About the Friends of Black Hawk County Conservation

Charles Alcock donated three and a half acres of his homestead to be used for a cemetery upon the deaths of his wife, Elizabeth (Peacock) Alcock, who passed away on November 3, 1870, from Typhoid fever, and his daughter Hannah, who passed away on November 21, 1870. It was Elizabeth's wish to be buried on the homestead. Eight of ten of the Alcock's children have been buried on this land. Since its establishment, the Cemetery has served as a community cemetery for residents of Frederika and the surrounding area and is the final resting place for nearly 500 people to date. Today, the Cemetery sits along Highway 63, about two and a half miles southwest of Frederika, Iowa.
