About Palo Alto County Health Care Foundation

The Palo Alto County Health Care Foundation promotes high-quality, accessible health care throughout Palo Alto County by securing charitable gifts that support the Palo Alto County Health System's capital, community, and program needs. Established in 1990 to help ensure a strong future for exceptional, local care, the Foundation supports a full continuum of services offered by the Palo Alto County Health System, including Palo Alto County Hospital, long-term care, independent living apartments, family practice clinics in Emmetsburg, Graettinger, and West Bend, and county-wide ambulance services. Donor contributions make it possible to recruit skilled physicians, invest in modern medical technology, enhance patient care spaces, and sustain the essential resources needed to provide high-quality rural health care.
