

Cedar Valley Nature Trail Fund

About the Cedar Valley Nature Trail

The Cedar Valley Nature Trail represents the first rail to trail conversion in the state of Iowa and serves as a recreational alternative for users of all types through urban and rural areas. The trail connects people with all the communities, amenities, cultural venues, and extensive trail systems in the Cedar Valley while linking Waterloo/Cedar Falls to Cedar Rapids through this recreational corridor.

A gift to Black Hawk County Conservation and the Cedar Valley Nature Trail Fund will ensure the sustainability of this trail for generations to come. These funds will be utilized for trail maintenance and improvements, and may serve as matching funds for potential grant opportunities.
