

Elma Early Childhood Center Fund

About Elma Early Childhood Center

The Elma Early Childhood Center (EECC) is a non-profit childcare center serving the Elma area with quality, fun, nurturing, affordable and safe childcare for children from 6 weeks to 12 years old. They operate from 5 a.m. to 6 p.m. The EECC coordinates the Summer Wisdom and Wellness program for school age kids and offers a 3 year old preschool during the school year. The EECC is a state certified center whom accepts Child Care Assistance and the Iowa Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). They are located in the former Elma Elementary School which is now a drop off / pick up location for busing for the Howard-Winneshiek Community School District and Riceville Community School District. The EECC provides a valuable service for area families and employers.
