About Elma Depot Museum

Elma's Museums include the Depot Museum and the Schoolhouse Museum. The Depot Museum is located on south Busti Avenue (south of the covered bridge or east of the former Elma Elementary School). It contains a history of the railroad industry formerly in Elma, including the roundhouse, as well as other historical artifacts unique to the Elma area. The Schoolhouse Museum is located on Elm Street (north of the covered bridge and south of the water tower). It contains memorabilia from Elma area schools; including the Lutheran school of Elma, the Catholic schools of Elma and Lourdes, the public country schools, and the Elma Public Schools. The Elma Museum board is dedicated to preserving the Elma area history.
