

Friends of Decorah Public Library Quasi-Endowment Fund

About Friends of Decorah Public Library

Established in 1995, Friends of Decorah Public Library is a 501c3 non-profit, providing financial support beyond city and county funding. The library pays for most of the children's, young adult, and adult programming that the library offers, including buying group book sets for numerous book clubs. Also provided are technology upgrades, furniture, and building improvements as needed.

By donating to the Friends of Decorah Public Library through memberships, memorials, bequests, and other gifts, you help the Decorah Public Library remain a vibrant and valuable community resource.

Your Gift Will Keep on Giving

Friends of Decorah Public Library established a quasi endowment fund as an additional way to promote the wonderful activities of the library.

The fund is professionally managed and invested to grow over time but allows Friends of Decorah Public Library increased flexibility to access funds when needed. Your contribution will help carry out the mission of the Decorah Public Library now, and forever. Your gift will also be eligible for federal deductions for charitable giving.
