About Humane Society of Northeast Iowa

The Humane Society of Northeast Iowa (HSNEI) is a full-service no-kill animal shelter, serving five rural counties in Iowa's Driftless region.

We provide care and adoption services for 400 homeless animals annually, financial assistance for low-income pet owners to spay/neuter their pets, and support to area animal control officers seeking humane care for animals in need.

In addition to caring for and adopting out homeless animals, HSNEI is an integral part of our humane community, with programs that bring children and college groups into the shelter to learn about proper animal care and our older animals into local assisted living facilities to provide loving attention to folks who can no longer have pets of their own. Our "Seniors for Seniors" Program is appreciated by both human and canine participants.
