

Windsor Theatre Endowment Fund

About Windsor Theatre

The Windsor Theater was constructed in 1913 by a local men's fraternal organization as an opera house for vaudeville acts, road shows, and a lodge. Theatre operations ceased in 1996. In 1998, the non-profit Windsor Theatre Development Corporation was incorporated to renovate and preserve the historic landmark. The newly remodeled Windsor Theatre reopened on May 28, 1999.

The Windsor Theater is the only first run movie theatre in Franklin county. The Theatre also serves as a venue for live performances for the Franklin County Arts Council as well as other events including the monthly Old Time Country Hoe Down and a monthly Old Fashioned Sing Along.

The over 100 year old building is part of the Hampton Double Square Historic District. Ongoing maintenance is needed. If this is not done, the community risks losing a landmark and a primary source of entertainment.
