About this Fund

The Try Pie Endowment Fund has been established with the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa to support the long-term sustainability of Try Pie, a teen employment and empowerment program based in the Cedar Valley.

Try Pie hires high school girls from Waterloo and Cedar Falls, offering them their first job experience alongside programming in job readiness, financial literacy, and personal growth. Through meaningful employment and mentorship, Try Pie equips young women with the confidence and skills to launch into what's next.

"Try Pie has operated for over a decade and has grown exponentially since! As we look toward what's next, we hope for this fund to help support the longevity of our operation, and ultimately support young women in the Cedar Valley for decades to come," said Sarah Helleso, Co-Director of Try Pie.

Try Pie's partnership with the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa reflects a shared commitment to community impact and long-term planning. With CFNEIA's trusted stewardship, this endowment fund provides a reliable way for supporters to invest in the future of Try Pie and the young women it serves.
