

Kossuth Childcare Solutions Fund

About the Kossuth Childcare Coalition

Affordable, high-quality childcare is essential to a strong community infrastructure, just like housing, healthcare, and transportation. When childcare isn't accessible, the impact ripples through families, employers, and the broader economy. Recognizing this critical need, the Kossuth Childcare Coalition was formed through the collaborative efforts of the Algona Area Economic Development Corporation (AAEDC), City of Algona, Algona Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Kossuth/Palo Alto County Economic Development Corporation.

To advance this mission, the Kossuth Childcare Solutions Fund has been established with the Kossuth County Community Foundation, an affiliate of the Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa. The fund supports projects and initiatives that strengthen the availability and quality of childcare across Kossuth County, providing resources for daycare workforce recruitment and retention, facility enhancements, and quality improvements.

By partnering with the Community Foundation, the Kossuth Childcare Coalition can offer donors a trusted and flexible way to give. This collaboration ensures contributions directly support efforts to expand childcare opportunities, creating a lasting benefit for families, employers, and the future of Kossuth County.
