

Senior Citizens Hospitality Center Endowment Fund

About Senior Citizens Hospitality Center

The Senior Citizens Hospitality Center provides a welcoming place of connection for adults age 55 and older and the broader community. Established in 1969, the Center has long been a cornerstone for social engagement, lifelong learning, and community involvement. The current building, purchased in 1977, serves as a hub for social, recreational, educational, and other activities that enrich the lives of members and promote healthy aging. Through a variety of programs and gatherings, members build friendships, stay active, and remain connected to the community. By offering affordable access and diverse programming, the Center helps ensure that older adults in the community have opportunities to stay connected, active and supported.

Your Gift Keeps on Giving

Your gift to the Senior Citizens Hospitality Center Endowment Fund will support and strengthen the long-term sustainability of the Center. Endowment support helps provide a reliable source of annual income to assist with ongoing operating expenses, programming, and facility needs.
